Hi, Steve.

I never did get that text you sent yesterday on my phone so I had figured you sent it to my home phone or something, but then when I looked at my iPad late last night it did show up there. All that to say I wasn't ignoring your request -- feel free to ask for whatever will help your work up there. Hope the data helped with your water treatment discussions. Let me know if some of the other data such as from Red and Bonita or Cement Creek will help.
